

1 FROM THE HONORABLE DESK OF
2 ERIC EUGENE CROWL -- REPUBLICAN PCO ELECT 28-556
3 (LAKEWOOD, PIERCE COUNTY, WASHINGTON) [2024-2026 TERM]
4

5 November 27th, 2024

6 NOTICE OF DEMAND TO CEASE AND DESIST (WITH TIMELY REMEDY TO CURE); AND 7 DEMAND FOR PRODUCTION AND INSPECTION OF DOCUMENTS

8 Dear Pierce County Republican Party,

9 I was elected in the Washington State Primary Election of 2024 (August) as a Republican Party
10 PCO for District 28-556 [pursuant to RCW 29A.80.041] for the 2024-2026 term [pursuant to RCW
11 29A.80.051]. I am fully qualified to perform my lawful duties as codified under RCW 29A.80.041.

12 These lawful duties include participation in party processes such as voting in party matters and 13 for party officials (for their respective seats) and other party affairs (such as bylaw construction and 14 adoption, for example).

15 I received a letter from you notifying me that I am being obstructed (by decree) from participating 16 in the upcoming December 7th, 2024 Biennial Organization Meeting on December 7th, 2024 - which 17 is to be conducted at "Experience Church, 10012 122nd St E, Puyallup, WA, 98373". The letter
18 referred to a "re-organization meeting", which doesn't appear anywhere in the bylaws. It further
19 refers to the "executive" – which I shall assume means the "Executive Board" for the purposes of this 20 letter

21 The aforementioned meeting is conducted by the Pierce County Republican Party under its 22 Bylaws [section 4] and by statute [pursuant to RCW 29A.80]. This meeting is open to the public, and 23 the sole purpose of the meeting is to conduct party business through its elected officers.

24 Your letter informed me that a vote was conducted by the Executive (aka "Central Committee")
25 at a meeting. I am not aware of any such meeting, nor was I adequately notified that such a meeting
26 would occur, nor was I notified of who the participants were, nor was I provided with any meeting
27 minutes thereof (including a roll call report or cast vote report), nor am I aware of any authority that 28 would exist to allow the committee or any person to order that an Elected PCO be excluded from a 29 future meeting.

30 In fact, I am aware that certain persons within the PCRCP have been working in an unlawful 31 conspiracy to obstruct me -- far prior to any such alleged vote -- as a means to obstruct me from 32 being able to discharge my official duties. Specifically, that the people conspiring to do so are aware 33 that I have been campaigning against their re-election to the executive or district boards and 34 committees. This [your letter] is, for all intents and purposes, thinly veiled lawfare.

35 I am also aware that such a conspiracy extends beyond Executive Committee / Board personnel.
36 I am further aware that the persons engaged in this conspiracy have no authority under any bylaw of 37 the PCRCP to exclude me without valid cause. You have not communicated any specific cause that 38 would qualify me for removal.

1 I am further aware that prior to any such alleged vote that persons were acting in concert and
2 collaboration to refuse my membership payments. This was obviously done as a procedural-ruse. A
3 clear and obvious attempt to maliciously wield the bylaws – as it constitutes a specific act of refusal
4 to follow procedure in the spirit of raising false [self-made] claim of “bad standing (for nonpayment
5 of dues)”.

6 This bad faith act is further exemplified through the unspecified allegations raised in the letter you
7 sent me. In fact, you sent me a form letter that was also sent to other Elected PCO’s, with the same
8 vague, unsubstantiated, and broad accusations – which also lacked any specificity of cause.

9 There is no process outlined in the PCRCP bylaws to remove an Elected PCO – evidenced by the 10 clear omission of any such provision; while there are provisions (for example) clearly outlined for 11 removing other officers and appointed PCO’s, as well as standing requirements for those elected
12 officers (but not Elected PCOs).

13 This leaves us with a prima facie context that the sole purposes for excluding me are: [1] 14 unsubstantiated claims; [2] personal acts performed by dubious actors outside of the constraints of 15 the bylaws; [3] a purposeful violation of notice requirements; and [4] acts of a dubious nature among 16 conspirators meant to criminally obstruct me from performing my statutorily authorized duties as an 17 elected official (and as clearly stated in the bylaws; and [5] bad faith acts in totality.

18 I have not engaged in any conduct violative of Bylaw 2.4 [“Conduct of Precinct Committee
19 Officers”], which is the sole provision that defines acceptable conduct for Elected PCO’s.

20 Further, Bylaw 4.1 specifically commands that “Elected PCOs shall comprise the CC for the 21 Biennial Organization Meeting”. Further Bylaw 2.3 specifically commands “The position of PCO has 22 both executive- and legislative-type duties.” There is no mention of any membership, standing, dues, 23 or other requirements (aside from the statutory requirements under RCW to be an Elected PCO. The 24 term shall is used, not “can” or “should” – this is a command directive, absent additional qualifying
25 provisions.

26 Furthermore, I am fully in compliance with all membership requirements set forth in Bylaw 1.4.
27 This is evidenced prima facie by a lack of any specific and refuting material evidence or substantive
28 allegations which would substantiate any such wild claim. An object trier of review would also be 29 forced to ask the question, specifically, of “what standards” are used to make such a determination.
30 In absence of any reasonable trier or disclosure of facts, this leaves such allegations as specious
31 conjecture rife with malicious bias and documented / planned dubious intent and purpose [sic: bad
32 faith acts].

33 “1.4: Membership in the PCRCP shall be open to all who: are both U.S. Citizens and Pierce County
34 residents; pay dues described in the Standing Rules Addendum; declare themselves PCRCP Bylaws
35 and Standing Rules 2023-2024 Republicans; do not belong to any other political party; support
36 Republican values and platform objectives; are a registered voter; honor the PCRCP and the WSRP;
37 refrain from behavior damaging to the party; and faithfully participate in party activities. A member in 38 good standing is in compliance with all of the above. Associate Membership in the PCRCP may be
39 granted to Republicans who meet the above criteria who are not Pierce County residents, examples

1 of which may include officials who are elected or appointed to serve Pierce County residents but who
2 live in another county”

3 Your refusal to accept my dues was stated as a means to exclude me from voting and 4 participating in my duties – by denying me “membership”. This is an act you chose to commit, not of 5 any violating of any provision on my own accord. This refusal began long before any such alleged 6 vote, occurring in March, May, August, September, and November. I made my dues payments,
7 repeatedly in good faith – even though they are NOT ACTUALLY REQUIRED TO ATTEND THE MEETING
8 YOU CLAIM I AM EXCLUDED FROM (per the very bylaws you referenced, or otherwise omitted 9 reference to).

10 Your stated reason for refusal to onboard me as a “member” was not specified, other than a 11 vague quote of the bylaws, without any substantial material causes or specific acts or issues that 12 you claim can bar me from membership.

13 You have forthwith refused to discuss any of these things with me in any material detail, although 14 I have requested that you do so; and in a timely manner as to address the urgency to such matters.

15 Furthermore, you have not provided me with the required notice of 10 days of the Biennial
16 Organization meeting occurring (time, place, etc) as required by Bylaw 4.1a “a Meeting notice mailed
17 or e-mailed to each newly elected PCO at least ten (10) days before the scheduled date of the 18 Meeting” either. It clearly states “newly elected PCO”, and makes no mention of any membership
19 requirements, either. An elected PCO is defined by RCW RCW 29A.80.051.

20 I was further excluded from a notification regarding alleged fee-payment requirements, which 21 was also absent adequate notice. Further, as noted above – there are no such bylaws that would 22 require me to make a fee payment to participate in the Biennial Organization Meeting; and, you’ve 23 purposely rejected such payments anyways.

24 Furthermore, I am NOT REQUIRED TO BE A “MEMBER” or “IN GOOD STANDING” to vote or 25 otherwise participate in the Biennial Organization Meeting, pursuant to Bylaw 4.1a,b – which states:

26 “4.1.a: The Biennial Organization Meeting of the Central Committee shall be called pursuant to 27 RCW 29A.80, by a Meeting notice mailed or e-mailed to each newly elected PCO at least ten (10)
28 days before the scheduled date of the Meeting. The incumbent PCRCP CC Chair shall open the 29 Meeting and serve as temporary chair. An appropriate Officer shall swear in the elected PCOs after 30 they repeat their affirmation that they are Republicans, do not belong to any other political party
31 eligible to nominate candidates for elective office, and that their PCRCP activities shall be governed
32 by the PCRCP’s duly enacted Bylaws and Standing Rules. CC Officers shall then be elected in 33 accordance with Bylaw 5.1. Committee Officers shall then be elected in accordance with Bylaw 5.1.
34 Those Officers elected must be and continue to be PCRCP Members in Good Standing.”

35 In fact, it only states that the “CC Officers” and “Committee Officers” will then be elected and 36 must be “PCRCP Members in Good Standing” – I am already an Elected PRECINCT COMMITTEE
37 OFFICER.

38 My behavior is mandated by bylaw 2.4, which states: “A PCO is a publicly identified
39 representative of the Republican Party. Therefore, a PCO’s public acts should not, by their nature,

1 advance the cause or the candidates of another party nor promote the political success of publicly
2 known activists or officials of another political party in partisan campaigns. Examples of such
3 displays could include endorsements in writing or supporting speeches at public events.”

4 Nothing in your exclusion letter states any violation of my conduct, nor do any Bylaws provide any 5 method for sanctioning me anyways as an Elected PCO. In short, the bylaws you quoted and the 6 causes you allege are punitively interpreted outside of the constraints of the bylaws you have 7 referenced.

8 HENCEFORTH, YOU ARE HEREBY COMMANDED TO:

9 [1] Immediately cease and desist any and all actions which would seek to bar or obstruct me
10 from discharging my lawful duties as an Elected PCO for District 28-556, including any attempts by 11 any PCRCP member to physically prevent me from attending or voting in the upcoming Biennial
12 Organization Meeting or receiving duly required notices; and

13 [2] Immediately issue a retraction of your previous letter informing me of your intent to continue 14 to engage in an unlawful criminal conspiracy to obstruct me [an elected official] from discharging my 15 duties as codified by statute (and as commanded in the bylaws).

16 [3] Provide the names of all persons engaging in this unlawful conspiracy, including any and all
17 accompanying records (emails, minutes, notices, etc).

18 WHEREFORE, having commenced and executed such notice by deliver, you are further notified 19 that refusal to promptly conduct such remedying acts constitutes a willful disregard and 20 continuance of injurious acts, and that such acts are subject to enforcement by any lawful means 21 required to remedy.

22 WHEREFORE, Beit resolved that this demand requires that you must remedy and cure such relief
23 demanded by no later than 11/29/2025 at 5:00 PM.

24 Cordially,

25
26 Eric Eugene Crawl

27 Republican Party Precinct Committee Officer for 28-556 (Lakewood, Pierce County)

28 10002 112TH ST SW

29 LAKEWOOD, WA 98498

30 (253) 228-6036 [cell]

31

Supporting Evidence

1

 S.A. Dupres @Susan_Dupres · 10h
Mr. Wolk, OutragePNW is my friend.

You've really crossed the line with your vitriol and foul language against MY friend.

Please leave OutragePNW alone!

1 1 11

 Free Brian Wolk
@B8BB8B88B88888B

Like i said, he owes me an apology and he won't be allowed on the premises. We can sort this out first or he will be physically blocked from attendance. Take it up with your lawyers Eric.

11:58 PM · Nov 24, 2024 · 13 Views

2

← Post Reply

 Free Brian Wolk
@B8BB8B88B88888B Blocked

Eric Cowl will not be at the PCRП reorg meeting . I'm making it clear to you now @outragePNW. If you want to have a conversation I am open to that. I'm here to talk about your toxic conduct online.

 S.A. Dupres @Susan_Dupres · 10h
Replying to @OutragePNW and @B8BB8B88B88888B
Why is this guy Brian Volk FIXATED on you?

It's really creepy and scary!

11:51 PM · Nov 24, 2024 · 40 Views

Free Brian Wolk @B8BB8B88B88888B

Eric Crowl is trespassed. It's not about being tough or threats. It's consequences.

9:20 AM · Nov 25, 2024 · 49 Views

1 Reply

Esteban Vihaio @EstebanV333 · 1h
Show me the citation.

1 Reply 3 Likes 41 Views

Free Brian Wolk @B8BB8B88B88888B · 1h
Replying to @EstebanV333 @FlagsTed and @OutragePNW
Word just came down 😊

1 Reply 1 Like 49 Views

1

Free Brian Wolk @B8BB8B88B88888B

This coward keeps blocking me.
Hey dumbass, you are talking about ME. why you running?

11:41 PM · Nov 24, 2024 · 52 Views

1 Reply

Outrage PNW @OutragePNW · 10h

1 Reply 3 Likes 113 Views

2

Show me all the summons then.

Until he is seated, he gets to do and say as he pleases. Read your own bylaws. He could have been sworn in and subject to the rules long ago, but was refused.

So until then, he is free to do as he pleases.

16

Free Brian Wolk

@B8BB8B88B88888B

Blocked

He's been refused with cause and will continue to be refused and rejected. I've tried multiple times to bring him into the fold and I was giving him inside intel and this is the thanks I get. He can go fuck himself, just like he told me to go fuck myself.

2:18 AM · Nov 25, 2024 · 17 Views

1

Free Brian Wolk @B8BB8B88B88888B · 14m

Replying to @FlagsTed @EstebanV333 and 3 others

Oh no you're going to mess up our super secret corruption conspiracy ring bro

18

Ted Flags @FlagsTed · 13m

Usurping the public is not a good look 🙄

11

Free Brian Wolk @B8BB8B88B88888B · 11m

Replying to @FlagsTed @EstebanV333 and 3 others

Exactly so tell @OutragePNW that. "The public" has agreed we don't want his conduct in our party.

17

2

Re: Greetings New PCO - From District 28-556!

Brian Wolk <electbrianwolk@gmail.com>

To: Eric Crowl

Sun 11/24/2024 9:21 PM

🚩 Flagged Start by 11/24/2024. Due by 11/24/2024.

Don't email me again Eric.

I was willing to help you then you told me to go fuck myself and blocked me.

I think you should stay out of the PCR, they want you to stay out and I agree with them now, you are a divisive psycho.

On Sun, Nov 24, 2024, 9:18 PM Eric Crowl <eric.crowl@citizenobservers.org> wrote:

Greetings Brian Wolk,

I am a newly elected PCO for the Pierce County Republican Party (PCR) – representing District 28-556 (Lakewood). Some of you may know me through my X handle, @OutragePNW.

I wanted to reach out to you and introduce myself prior to the scheduled December 7th, 2024 Biennial Reorganization Meeting. As I understand, you were also elected for the District 27-488 position.

1